Promptings

As many of you know, I'm scheduled for total hip replacement surgery on Thursday, March 14. By the time you read this column, I should be home and into rehabbing. Naturally, I'll be out of pocket for a while. I'm grateful for staff colleagues and others who are stepping in to preach, teach, and provide pastoral care during my absence.

We are well launched into Lent. If you've not already done so, download the d365 devotional resource to your phone or computer (go to www.d365.org). The site provides daily scripture readings, devotionals, reflections, and prayers. I hope you choose to share in this congregation-wide experience. We've also begun to work through the worship series entitled "Straight Talk." If you are in town, make a point of participating in worship each Sunday throughout Lent.

Dear Church Family,

Words are not adequate enough to express my gratitude for your love and support. If imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, consider me utterly flattered. I love my church family at CBCFC! Never have I felt more loved by you than last Sunday and the days surrounding it.

From the plaid shirts, to the amazing breakfast, to the kind words, cards, smiles, hugs, and handshakes...I feel truly loved, flattered, and honored. Thank you!

Thanks also for everything you have been and meant to the Cockerhams!! Laura, the kids, and I were honored to serve you the past 7+ years. They have been some of the most meaningful in my life. You have a wonderful way of expressing Christ! We love you all and look forward to serving alongside you in a new way.

What a wonderful and loving church!

God's Peace, Jeff
